

Sam Shui Natives Association Huen King Wing School

2019-20 2nd Term

Revision Worksheet 2.1 ANS

Name : _____ () Marks : _____

Class : P.6 () Date : _____

Relative Pronouns: who / which

We use relative pronouns to join two parts that refer to the same thing.

who → about people which → about things or animals

who – about people

Peter is a man. He loves sweets.

↓ ↓
same person

↓ ↓
Peter is a man who loves sweets.

which – about things or animals

Mary plants a tree.

The tree is very big.

↓ ←
same thing

↓ ↓
Mary plants a tree which is very big.

Exercise 1

Fill in the blanks with 'who' or 'which'.

1. Bobo is a cat which has a small nose and short ears.
2. Coffee is a dog which has a big nose and a long tail.
3. Sam is a boy who has short hair and big eyes.
4. May is a girl who has straight hair and big eyes.
5. Rocky is pig which has a big nose and long ears.
6. Judy is a girl who has curly hair and small eyes.

Exercise 2

Join the sentences with ‘who’ or ‘which’.

1. Sammy is a young girl. She enjoys daydream.

Sammy is a young girl who enjoys daydream.

2. Jay has a sister. Her sister likes sleeping.

Jay has a sister who likes sleeping.

3. We are looking at a painting. It is worth a million dollars.

We are looking at a painting which is worth a million dollars.

4. My brother has a robot. The robot is given by Uncle Lee.

My brother has a robot which is given by Uncle Lee.

5. This is the shop. The shop was closed yesterday.

This is the shop which was closed yesterday.

6. John wore a hat. The hat was blue.

John wore a hat which was blue.

Name : _____ () Marks : _____

Class : P.6 () Date : _____

Mandy is reading a fable. Read it and answer the following questions. Choose the best answer for Questions 1-6 and write the letter (A,B,C,D) on the answer sheets.

The fox and the crane

Once upon a time, there lived a fox and a crane. The fox always thought he was clever and he always played tricks on the crane. The fox was as proud as a peacock.

5 One day the fox invited the crane to dinner. The crane gladly accepted the invitation. He went to the fox's house. The fox had prepared some soup which was served in a flat shallow dish. The crane with its long beak could hardly pick up anything.

After finishing the soup, the fox said, 'What's tasty soup! Why don't you eat any?' Then he finished the crane's share in no time and laughed loudly.

10 Poor crane went away hungry and disappointed. He cursed the fox for his selfishness and cunningness. He made up his mind to teach the fox a good lesson.

After some time, the crane invited the fox to dine. The fox accepted his invitation and went to the crane's residence.

15 The crane placed before his guest a tall jar with a narrow neck. The crane with its long beak finished the contents of the jar. _____ the fox could not eat anything as his mouth could not get into the jar.

The fox went home much ashamed and hungry. The crane paid him back in the same old coin.

1. In line 5, 'which' refers to _____.
A. the invitation
 C. the soup
B. the fox
D. the fox's house
2. In line 9, 'Then he finished the crane's share in no time,' the phrase 'in no time' refers to be _____.
 A. quick like a flash
B. weak like a baby
C. slow like a snail
D. timid like a mouse
3. In line 14, 'residence' refers to _____.
 A. a house
B. a school
C. a shop
D. an office
4. In line 16, which connective should be added?
A. Finally
 C. However
B. Suddenly
D. After a while
5. Which of the following is true?
A. The fox liked the crane so he invited the crane for dinner.
B. The crane enjoyed the meal prepared by the fox.
C. The fox never played tricks on others.
 D. The crane was not as silly as the fox thought.
6. What is the lesson of the fable?
A. Always forgive others.
B. Be good to your friends even if they are mean to you.
C. To invite friends for dinner.
 D. To treat a person in the same way he treated you.

Answer the questions in complete sentences.

7. In paragraph 4, what did the crane think about the fox?

The crane thought the fox was selfish/cunning/ selfish and cunning.

Sam Shui Natives Association Huen King Wing School

2019-20 2nd Term

Revision Worksheet 2.3 ANS

Name : _____ () Marks : _____

Class : P.6 ()

Date : _____

Tenses

Fill in the blanks with the correct forms of verbs.

Last night, I e.g. slept (sleep) very late because I had to 1. revise (revise) my English dictation. Suddenly, I 2. heard (hear) some strange noise from the street, I

3. was (be) curious and wanted to 4. see (see) what was happening.

While I 5. was walking (walk) in the street, I 6. saw (see) a drunk man singing. Then, he discovered me and 7. yelled (yell) at me, 'Stop 8. looking (look) at me! If you don't run away now, I 9. will give (give) you a punch!' But I wasn't scared and said, 'I 10. know (know) Thai boxing. I

11. have learnt (learn) Thai boxing since I was six. I 12. won (win) a gold medal in the Thai Boxing World Competition last year. I'm not afraid of you.' He looked surprised, 'Oh, haven't you?' and he 13. ran (run) away.